The Austrian Higher Education System

- 10 General Universities
- 6 Universities of the Arts
- 3 Universities of Technology
- 3 Medical Universities
- 17 Private Universities
- 21 Universities of Applied Sciences
- 2 Private Universities of Applied Sciences
- 14 University Colleges of Teacher Education

Universities of Applied Sciences

- More profession-oriented education
- Offer full-time and extra-occupational studies
- Compulsory entrance examination
- Some charge tuition fees (more details at the respective institution)
- Bachelor's & master's degree studies; currently no PhDs
- Graduates of UAS master's programmes may enrol in PhD (doctoral) programmes at universities

Information about studying Medicine in Austria

- These four public universities offer the study programme “Medicine” in Austria :
- Medical University of Vienna
 - Medical University of Innsbruck
 - Medical University of Graz
 - Faculty of Medicine at Johannes Kepler University Linz
- Participation in the MedAT admission test is mandatory as part of the admissions process. The MedAT takes place once a year, usually at the beginning of July. It is the same exam for all universities on the same day.
- Please note that the test is only available in German! Therefore, very good German language skills are required! Application fee: Euro 110
- According to our knowledge there are no institutions in Austria that offer “Medicine” entirely in English.

Teacher Training in Austria

First steps to studying in Austria

1 – Find your programme and your institution

Find your study programme in Austria at studienwahl.at/en

This database allows you to search for study options in Austria

- By programme/subjects
- By location
- By final degree
- By type of university (university or university of applied sciences)

Austrian higher education institutions offer bachelor's, master's and PhD programmes.

2 – Application and Admission

- Please note that you have to contact the respective higher education institution (Admission Office) for all questions regarding application for a study programme/admission (information on deadlines, admission requirements, documents needed for admission, language skills).
- If you have already studied abroad and would like to continue your studies in Austria, you can probably get your studies recognised. You have to contact the respective higher education institution for further information.
- For most study programmes at universities access is free. However, some study programmes have limited access or require entrance exams. In any case you have to prove your university entrance qualification (secondary school leaving certificate or professional qualification examination)
Attention: Universities of applied sciences and universities of the arts require an entrance examination.
- German language skills: The main language of instruction at Austrian universities and universities of applied sciences is German; however, a significant number of study programmes is also offered in English: studienwahl.at/en. If your selected study programme is mainly held in German, it is necessary to prove knowledge of German.

At some universities you need proficiency in German corresponding to level B2, at others a level corresponding to C1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages is required. It is necessary to prove a German level of at least A2 (according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages, CEFR) if you want to be admitted to a German course at a University Preparation Programme before starting your regular study programme.

Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR)

- A: Basic User
 - A1 – Beginner
 - A2 – Elementary
- B: Independent User
 - B1 – Intermediate
 - B2 – Upper intermediate
- C: Proficient
 - C1 – Advanced
 - C2 – Mastery or proficiency

German language courses for nationals of Ukraine

- The Austrian Integration Fund (ÖIF) provides free German courses with a state-recognised certificate for Ukrainian displaced persons all over Austria at levels A1 - C1.
- You can book an appointment for German course counselling by calling the ÖIF hotline (+43 1 715 10 51-120).
- You need to bring your residence card, your registration form, and a social security confirmation with you to the appointment.

More information: www.integrationsfonds.at/ukraine/

Important information: The German courses are offered to people who have already received a "Blue residence card" for displaced persons.

University Preparation Programmes

- You can only enrol in a German course in a University Preparation Programme if you have already been admitted by an Austrian university.
- The University Preparation Programmes (Vienna, Graz and Leoben) prepare international students who have been admitted to study at an Austrian university for supplementary examinations. International applicants for a place at university can attend intensive courses in
 - German as a foreign language
 - English, mathematics, physics, chemistry, biology, history, geography
- The German courses last at least 320 teaching units, the course fee in Vienna is around 1,365 euros per semester.
- More information: vorstudienlehrgang.at
- For further questions, please contact the University Preparation Programmes directly: vwu@vwu.at; +43 1 319 99 91.
- Attention: Universities of applied sciences offer special preparatory courses

First steps to studying in Austria –

3 – Financing your studies

→ Tuition fees

- Students with Ukrainian citizenship have their tuition fees for the winter semester 2023/24 waived or refunded. This applies to all public higher education institutions in Austria
- Students from third countries: 726.72 euros per semester plus the Students' Union fee of EUR 22.70 (in total EUR 749.42).

→ Scholarships

→ To take up employment in Austria you need

- Your “Blue Card” (ID for displaced persons) which allows you to work without a special permit from the AMS.

Recognition of foreign qualifications

- For questions about the recognition of academic degrees and academic titles as a recommendation for the labour market please contact the responsible National Information Centre for Academic Recognition, ENIC NARIC AUSTRIA
- The nationwide contact points for persons with qualifications acquired abroad (AST contact points) will advise all those who have a qualification from abroad. Depending on the federal province additional counselling locations are available. Counselling is still available for all Ukrainians who wish to discuss professional and vocational recognition. However, AST funding for translation costs is only possible for those who have received an ID card for displaced persons.
- There are five AST contact points at 4 different organisations. These organisations also offer advice on residence, especially for persons registered with the AMS:
 - ZEBRA in Graz
 - ZeMiT in Innsbruck
 - Migrare in Linz
 - Counselling Centre for Migrants in Vienna and for Women
